

Holmes County Farmer

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1890
LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Thanks.
Our thanks are due to Jesse Uhl, A. J. Bell, James S. Reed, Jacob Stoop and others for lists of new subscribers.

Good.
The Oysters at George Sneed's Saloon are very fine. George knows how to cook them. He fed us until we cried "satisfied."

Religious.
Elder W. S. Gray, will address the Citizens in the Diapler's Meeting House, on Friday evening, August 24th, and remain over Lord's Day.

Turn Out.
Don't fail to attend the Democratic meeting at the Court House on Friday evening. Judge Brass will be present to address the people. Let us have a big meeting.

Sold.
Joseph Work has sold his dwelling house in this place to M. M. Speigel, the warehouse man. We understand the price paid to be $900. Uhler & Thompson have sold the Oxford mill to J. Duncan.

Repairing Road.
The Trustees of Hardy Township will sell the lowest bidder, on the 24th inst., the repairing of a road and the building of a board fence on a piece of new road on Armstrong Wolgast's farm.

A Straw.
Within the last eight days we have added to our subscription list the names of eight persons who have heretofore acted with the Republican party but who now declare their intention to vote for DOUGLASS and JOHNSON.

A Screw Loose.
Our subscribers at Nashville complain that they don't get the Farmer for several days after publication. It is not our fault, for we mail it regularly. We do not know where the blame lies but we will endeavor to find out.

Lady's Book.
Goner's Lady's Book, for September, is on our table full of good things. How any lady who has been accustomed to its monthly visitation can do without it is more than we can tell. It is richly worth $3 a year.

More Hickory.
Mr. GEORGE UHL, one of the old Jackson Guard had a fine hickory planted at his residence a few days ago. When it was fairly raised cheer after cheer went up from those present for the "little Giant" of the West. The Democratic Band was present and discoursed sweet music.

Saltcrack Fair.
We publish the premium list for the Saltcrack Fair in today's paper. The agriculturists of Saltcrack will, doubtless, have a very fine fair, and we hope those of neighboring townships will give all the aid they can to it. The good people of Saltcrack township show more of a spirit of enterprising than our County Agricultural Society.

Thomas W. Saxton.
Our old personal friend and political enemy, THOMAS W. SAXTON, has been nominated for County Auditor by the Republicans of Stark County. Tom is a good fellow generally, but we think it a pity to sell a good printer to make an ordinary County Auditor, and for that reason we would advise the people of Stark County to reject old Tom McCall.

All Invited.
Being strangers to most of the people in this vicinity may have caused us to miss sending invitations to many persons for the Introductory Service at the ELIZON House, on Thursday Evening, Aug. 22nd. We, therefore, take this method of saying that all are cordially invited whether they have received notes of invitation or not.

That "Holler."
We are requested to notice that the great and long expected "holler" for LEXINGTON will come off some time in September. Mr. HENRICK, the representative in Congress from MY district, was in this place a few days ago making arrangements to have the said "holler" brought up the Kill-buck on a raft. Don't, for mercy sake, bring it in after night; it might wake the children.

Holmes County.
While in a neighboring county, a few days ago, we heard a man, who pretended to know, positively assert that BRECKINRIDGE would get six hundred votes in this county. We don't know how many votes he will get in the county but we do know that it would be no trouble to find men here who are willing to bet that he don't get twenty-five votes. To ascertain the BRECKINRIDGE strength in any county, take their estimates and divide by 50.

A Black Republican Lie.
The Republican says a BRECKINRIDGE pole was raised in this place some days ago. The pole, which the Republican refers to was raised for a juvenile military company of this place without any reference to politics. It is true the pole is hickory, and we hope all those for whom it was raised may live to erect many hickory poles in honor of the Democratic party—that those young patriots may never be found in political company with those who would welcome the soldiers who fight the battles of our common country "with bloody hands to hospitable graves."

PARODY.
John Breckinridge my Joe, John,
When first we were acquaint,
You said you was a Democrat,
But now I know you ain't,
I spent some time and money,<
Because I loved you Joe,
To make you Vice President,
John Breckinridge, my Joe,
John Breckinridge my Joe, John,
We've been long enough together
Since you've turned better John,
We're not birds of a feather;
And we must tumble down, John,
If hand in hand we go,
For Stephen will be President,
John Breckinridge my Joe.

Meeting at Fredericksburg.
The Democratic Meeting at Fredericksburg on Saturday last was very largely attended. We were told by many citizens that it was the largest assemblage of people ever congregated at the place. Excellent speeches were made by D. S. Uhl and J. P. JEFFERSON, Esqrs. The Millersburg Democratic Band, the Mayville Band and numerous Military Bands added to the interest of and enlivened the meeting. A beautiful hickory pole was raised with the flag of our country flying from the top, before the speaking commenced. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed for DOUGLASS and JOHNSON. Old men and young men were there by wagon loads, buggy loads and every other way. A great number of ladies were present—Mr. J. J. BECKER, of the Fredericksburg House, did not fail to feed the hungry. He deserves great credit for his success in catering for the stomachs of the immense crowd that best him. Everything passed off with entire satisfaction.

Well and Everet Paper.

A new weekly paper to be called "The Constitutional Union," and to be devoted to the support of BELL and EVERETT, was commenced in Cincinnati a few days ago. It is a large sheet, and will be published at 50 cents for the Campaign. The publishers offer as an inducement to subscribers that they will present to the BELL and EVERETT Club sending the largest list of subscribers during the Campaign, a splendid silk Union Banner.

Address, WATKIN & BUTLER, Publishers, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Understandings.
The Mayor of Millersburg has decided that before the town Ordinance compelling the Groceries to close their doors on the Sabbath, can be enforced, it must be published for three consecutive weeks—Republican.

The Mayor of Millersburg gave no understanding. We understand, however, that the town Council have decided, and the Mayor sustained the decision, that the editor of the Republican might have his ears cropped three times and still they would be too long. Nobody expects that the decision is meant to be enforced. It is merely done to keep up appearances abroad, and give people at a distance to understand that the morals of this town will not allow a man to wear ears bigger than a pair of saddle flaps.

Sealing Wax.
Don't you sealing wax for your bottles of fruit, or fruit juice, called wine, or anything else you want to seal up for future use. Make it yourself. How? We will tell you. These are the ingredients:
Beeswax, 1/2 oz.; English Vermilion, 1 1/2 oz.; Gum Shellac, 1/2 oz.; rosin, 8 oz.

Take some cheap iron vessel that you can always keep for the purpose, put in the rosin and melt it in the water. Then add the shellac, slowly, and stir that in, and afterwards the beeswax. When wanted for use at any time, set it on a slow fire and melt it so you can dip the nozzles in. Recollect that the vermilion is only put in for the look of the thing, and if you want to use it for any purpose where color is no object, as for instance in sealing over wounds upon trees, you may leave the color out. The ingredients for sealing wax, bought in this city, cost only 25 cents, for which, and a little trouble, you can have three quarters of a pound of good sealing wax for any common use. For any purpose such as an application to trees where you want it tougher than the above proportions will make it, add a little more beeswax, and leave out the vermilion. —New York Tribune.
